HART & SON,

Violin Dealers and Makers,
and Experts in Old Violins,

23, WARDOUR STREET, LONDON, W.

MESSRS. HART & SON are widely known throughout the world as dealers in the violins of the old masters of Cremona and other famous schools, and their opinion as judges is accepted as final. Their collection of violins, violas and violoncellos is indisputably the richest and most varied in the world.

If intending purchasers will communicate with them, and give an idea of the class of instrument they seek, every information will be furnished by return mail.

The Violin, its Famous Makers and their Imitators, by the late Mr. George Hart, is recognized in England, France and America as the standard work on the subject, and is invariably referred to in all legal disputes concerning the authenticity of violins.

While Hart & Son have a unique collection of such famous instruments as those of Stradivari, the Amati, Ruggeri, Lorenzo and G. B. Guadagnini, Landolfi, and the Gagliano family, they have taken special pains to acquire a large number of violins by Italian and other European makers, which, while more moderate in price, cannot fail to give satisfaction, especially in the matter of tone, both to the professional and the amateur. These instruments are steadily appreciating in value, and in a few years will not be obtainable at double their present prices. A protection to buyers is found in the fact that the guarantee of Hart & Son as to the genuineness of any instrument is considered indisputable throughout Europe and the United States.

A CHILD CAN FIT IT.

THE SECRET OF TONE

in old fiddles is free vibration, due to elasticity, acquired by long use. The Resonatone promptly applies or increases elasticity, and thus wonderfully improves the Resonance and Tone of any fiddle. It corrects defects, enhances value, and makes playing delightful and easy.
